Sheriff's Office Investigates Death of Man in Greenfield Park

Milwaukee, WI – At 7:53 AM, Deputies along with the West Allis Fire Department responded to a call regarding an unresponsive male in Greenfield Park. The male subject was pronounced deceased shortly after the arrival of the WAFD.

The incident is being investigated by MCSO detectives, who are presently of scene. The Milwaukee County Medical Examiner is currently on scene as well. The cause of death appears to be cold-weather related and no foul play is suspected.

There will be an update posted tomorrow, identifying the decedent, following notification to family members.

Nothing further will be released at this time.
